From These Roots . . .

NAME THE SCHOOLS

Milton L. Kirkpatrick, the oldest Negro school in Fort Worth, began as a one-room frame structure in 1906.

It was then called Quality Grove School.

Kirkpatrick was at that time just an elementary school. But in 1950, junior and senior high sections were added at 3201 Refugio. That's when the name became M. L. Kirkpatrick, in honor of an I. M. Terrell vice principal who died in 1947. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is now librarian at Morningside Junior High.

In 1958, the elementary school moved into a new building at 3229 Lincoln.

HISTORY AND DATA ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

The small, one-room building pictured here depicts the first structure of the North Side school for Negroes. The building, erected in nineteen hundred six, began its service to the community with Mrs. Luella Lawson as teacher.

A two-room building was later erected on Refugio. Mrs. Emma Clayton and Mrs. H. F. Randle served as teachers.

With the extension of the city limit in 1910, the school site was relocated. Classes were held in the Shiloh Baptist Church and the school operated under the name of the Rosen Heights Colored School with Mrs. Mamie Poole, principal.

In 1912, the school site was again changed with the erection of a two-room building on Lee Avenue where it operated for several years. Later a better location was purchased on Clinton Avenue and a four-room structure was built to accommodate the rapid growth in enrollment. The name was changed to the Clinton Avenue School. The building burned in 1921, and an eight-room building was erected.

In 1913, the county and city schools were consolidated with Mr. Jordan as principal. Mr. Jordan was succeeded by Mr. H. T. Wise who remained principal eight years. Other persons serving as principal at this location were Mr. Tidwell, Mr. K. W. McMillan, Mr. C. O. Wallis, and Mrs. Ruby L. Miller.

In 1950, the school transferred from Clinton Avenue to the present location 3201 Refugio Avenue. The school was named the Milton L. Kirkpatrick Junior High School in honor of the late Professor Milton L. Kirkpatrick.

At present, this is a Middle-Senior high school with an enrollment of approximately four hundred and sixty students, twenty classrooms, an auditorium, a gymnasium, a cafeteria, and two frame structures.

The staff is composed of a principal, a vice-principal, a registrar, a librarian, a nurse, a visiting teacher, a part-time counselor, two attendance clerks, two instructional aides, twenty five teachers, two maids, four custodians, and a cafeteria staff.

In September 1971, the school will open as the M. L. Kirkpatrick Middle School.

Dedication

"For anything worth having, one must pay the price; and the price is always work, patience, love, self-sacrifice--no paper currency, no promise to pay--but the goal of real service."

John Burroughs

The quotation above best describes the efforts of an individual whose joy in life springs in part from power of work and sense of duty. Through the years, she has worked diligently to render an invaluable service in the publication of the WILDCAT. This edition is a reality which has come as a result of her long-range planning and creative visions. The true merits of self-sacrifice and perseverance are epitomized here in these pages.

In gratitude for service rendered, we the Junior and Senior classes, respectfully dedicate the 1971 WILDCAT to our sponsor, Mrs. Maggie M. Porter.

We hope that this tribute, which you so rightly deserve, will serve as a lasting momento of our sincere regard for your patience and illuminative guidance in this, the last volume of the KIRKPATRICK WILDCAT.

The Principal's Message

THE PAST PRESENT AND FUTURE!

Someone has very timely said, "Without the past, there can be no future." We would be remiss if we failed to consider the events and individuals of the past who have contributed to our present growth and development in the realm of education.

During the past fifteen years of my administration here at Kirkpatrick, I have experienced a continuation of an uncompromising devotion to all aspects of our educational endeavors. True dedication and loyal support are the vital, dynamic forces that enhance success in any organization. This has been a call to duty - from which the patrons of this community have not procrastinated. It is our hope that this kind of devotion will always exist, for it is through the cohesive relationship of our school and community that we seek to perpetuate the intellectual, cultural, and moral climate which will ascertain the ultimate fulfillment of quality education.

We are looking forward to the coming year with great confidence and enthusiasm. New trends and new techniques will characterize our methods of instruction in the transition from high school to middle school. All of the changes are designed to provide a quality educational program that will meet the needs and the individual differences of each student in his development into a responsible, well-prepared citizen - a citizen capable of coping with the complexities of life in a technological society.

Bowing Out As Champs - Final Run

1971 State Track Team

L to R: Larry Ellis, Donald Mayes, Willis Anderson, Thomas Brown, and Ronald Williams, Coach Parker.

The Fort Worth Press, Thursday, May 20, 1971

CITY OF FORT WORTH PROCLAIMS MAY 19th "KIRKPATRICK COACHES DAY".

Wildcats bow out forever

A proud athletic tradition bowed out of Fort Worth history last night, as Kirkpatrick held its last athletic banquet ever at Walter Jetton's.

Wildcat football, basketball and track teams of the past were honored and it was proclaimed Kirkpatrick Coaches Day by official proclamation of Mayor R. M. (Sharkey) Stovall.

Kirkpatrick, which won AA district championships too numerous to recount and more state championships than any school in Fort Worth history, will be closed as a senior high school at the end of the current term.

Along with head coach Lester Beene and his staff—basketball coach Bobby Meeks and track coach Donald Parker were several former Wildcat coaches and teachers, and the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce presented each of them with a citation of merit.

Included in the array of guests was I. M. Terrell coach Gerald Beal, the first coach in Wildcat history, who moved to Terrell three years ago after 14 years at Kirkpatrick. Also on hand were the school's two most illustrious alumni, Dallas Cowboy Margene Adkins and Buffalo Brave Nate Bowman.

Coach Parker, Coach Beene, and Coach Meeks.

Leonard Briscoe, newly-elected city councilman, presents coaches with Mayor's proclamation at Final Banquet.

From the Editor

It's with feelings of sincere gratitude and heartfelt pleasure that I hereby take advantage of an opportunity afforded me to set forth the feelings of our students in what I am certain will become one of our most cherished possessions-1957 "WILDCAT" 1971.

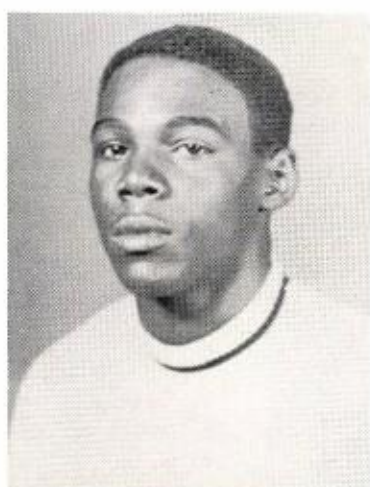

Our departure from Kirkpatrick fills us with mixed feelings of sadness and happiness. I am happy because our graduation marks the climax of an educational growth spurt that started fifteen years ago. I am sad because the tree has matured, and those who remain will be forced to take roots in a new society; however, I feel that each one is capable of assuming his role as a citizen and of contributing constructively in a rapidly growing world.

GOOD LUCK AND BEST WISHES FOR A SUCCESSFUL FUTURE

After Fifteen Years, the Climax of a Growth Spurt Has Sustained the Pride of Our Heritage

We resolve to meet the future fired with the flame of the present and armed with the steel of the past.

The Educational Purpose Remains Unchanged As the Doors Are Closed at Kirkpatrick High

The bell has rung, the door has closed, the hall is empty - fifteen years have ended. But from an ending many beginnings are conceived; new moods are captured and new ideas are modulated. Each student and teacher has completed an important segment of his life - a period during which each has been continually motivated by the masses from the cafeteria to the football stadium to the classroom, yet has managed to maintain his individualism, to understand his own unique personality, and to realize his potential.

Each strives to reach certain goals. Some succeed while others fail; yet all have tried. And in trying have learned, matured and earned the title of M.L.K. student; a title that carries with it respect, honor and responsibilities.
